Navy Recruiting Office To Be Open on Saturdays

Rodeo Queen Being Sought

Candidates for the title of 1959 Torrance Rodeo Queen are currently being sought by the Torrance Mounted Police and the Police Officers Assn., sponsors of the rodeo, according to Lt. D. C. Cook, parade chairman.

Deadline on entries is Friday, June 19, at 5 p.m. Applications are available at the Chamber of Commerce office, 1511 Cravens.

Would-be entrants are required to be Torrance residents between the ages of 1 and 22. Judging will be in western attire on the basis of beauty and poise, riding ability, and pre-tickler sales for the rodeo, Lt. Cook explained.

Winner of the contest will reign over the annual Torrance Rodeo to be held in the Civic Center Saturday and Sunday, July 25 and 26, during the third annual Rancho Days celebration, and will participate in the parade preceding the festivity. She will also be awarded a complete outfit of western attire from Tight Cinch Clothing, Lomita.
